Dear Sir,

Enclosed please find amendments to our 1/1/2001 through 6/30/2001 FEC report declaring some minor problems recently discovered.

#1 - See attachment.

While gleaning from old mailings to make sure our database was updated, a staff member discovered that an earmarked contribution was handled incorrectly. Please see the attached amendment pages 211 and 257 where the contribution from Edward Reilly, earmarked through the conduit, National Republican Senatorial Committee, has been reported correctly. (Please note that, although there was only one conduit check for $2,000, it appears twice on the report, referring to each of the transaction lines required to show the check was designated to two elections.)

#2 - See attachment.

Thanks to Ms. Jill Sugarman, FEC Reports Analyst, we discovered General Dynamics Voluntary Contribution Plan's contribution check #3205 on 5/15/2001 was misdesignated to the primary election. We had previously refunded this contribution, as detailed in our letter of November 28, 2001, to Ms. Sugarman; however, General Dynamics PAC voided and returned the check along with a copy of the original check and stub (which is enclosed) showing the correct designation. This correction is documented in the amendment pages 33-34.

#3 - See attachment.

$1,000 of a $2,000 check from Edward Lawson, Jr., was redesignated per his verbal request; however, the written directive indicated reattribution to his spouse, Jay Lawson. We failed to reflect this change from what he told us to what he wrote us in our database. See enclosed reattribution letter and amendment page 166.
